Beautiful automobiles in a beautiful setting. That was the reality June 1st at the 29th annual Huntington Beach Concours d' Elegance. The site was Central Park just below the main library at 7111 Talbert Avenue. Proving that Metropolitans get respect too, Gwen Tolleson's Met shown below came away with 1st Place in the class titled British Salon Street. A Bentley and a Rolls took second and third place. Congratulations Gwen.

Our May outing was a visit to Garden Grove's Stanley Ranch. For some of us it was a nostalgic reminder of Orange County's past. Docent Nancy Phillips led us on a charming tour of the grounds, the structures & artifacts within. The black & white photo above depicts a typical early scene when orange groves surrounded homes. It graces the living room of the actual home in the picture which is part of the museum today.

Our tour group below consisted of Mike & Kim Dahlberg, Tony & Jackie Bilotti, Ron & Barbara Bauman, Caryl Stephenson, Judy Conner & George & Norma Mocabee.

When Mets were newer and driven to work!

In the museum's old lumber yard office, eagle-eye George Mocabee was the first to spot a Met in this late 50's photo taken over Garden Grove. Mike Dahlberg & Tony Bilotti joined in and discovered two more! Someone wondered out loud and said "Do you suppose any of the three in this picture belongs to any of us today?"

We thanked our Docent & said goodbye to the reminders of orange blossoms and smudge pots. Oh yes, Ron & Barbara Bauman announced that they were sharing their 45th Wedding Anniversary with us! Below our group had lunch at Azteca Restaurant in old town.

Club Cruise Director Marcia Jones (above) coasts down a Craig Park hill to join our picnic June 8th. Later she would eloquently write: “Our picnic was great! A beautiful day in the park with lots of Mets from all over, that included new members, old members, GREAT FOOD, and I think a pretty good auction that helped earn some money for our Club as we pay no yearly dues. The home made wall hanging by Judy Conner was awesome and Gwen put a lot of TLC into a little travel case that included pictures and stories of some of our Mets. And that was just a couple of items so thanks to all of you who donated to the auction and of course a special thanks to our Auctioneer Ronnie! But ya' know.... what I like best about our Club... other than the obvious... is the PEOPLE. We have such a great group of fun loving, caring, just plain ole' good people. Everyone was so happy to see Ed and Betty McAlister who have been MIA for the last few events, and it showed. Gwen managed to STILL get there even though she threw her back out, again, and people cared. It was good to see Al too. And the list goes on of all the "Metters" who take the time to come to our events even though 'life' happens. It's always a fun and happy time.”

Picnicking with us for the first time were new members John & Connie Waugh, Mike & Greta Bradshaw & Gary Loomer. Familiar faces belonged to: Chuck Hatfield & friend Linda, Mike & Kim Dahlberg, Marcia Jones, Leon & Nancy Hastings, Armando & Maritz Reyes, Jim Houpt, Paul Van Wig, John & Anita Fildes, Al Albarico, Nate Hall & brother Tomas, Renee & Nick Anderson, Gwen & Tom Tolleson, George & Norma Mocabee, Ed & Betty McCallister, Ken & Judy Conner, Tony & Jackie Bilotti and Ron & Barbara Bauman.
